

TOGETHER FORward HISTORY

EUROCLIO ACTION PLAN 2014¹

¹ In 2014, EUROCLIO is planning to continue to work for the Association's mission through its 8 areas of work. Most activities are undertaken within existing programme and project frameworks, but overall this plan of actions is subject to the successful obtaining of financial support through a European Commission Operating Grant.

INTRODUCTION

EUROCLIO, the European Association of History Educators, established in 1992, supports the development of responsible and innovative history, citizenship and heritage education as a way to promote critical thinking, mutual respect, peace, stability and democracy. The Association advocates a sound use of history and heritage education towards the building and deepening of democratic societies, connecting professionals across boundaries of countries, ethnicities and religions. It seeks to enhance the quality of history and citizenship education through capacity building for educators and producing and implementing innovative teaching tools. EUROCLIO has been able to define and pragmatically refine a methodology building on the practical work it carried out. Its approach is process-oriented and believes in reinforcing professional talents as fundamental resources for innovation and change.

MISSION

EUROCLIO supports the development of responsible and innovative history, citizenship and heritage education by promoting critical thinking, multi-perspectivity, mutual respect, and the inclusion of controversial issues. The Association advocates a sound use of history and heritage education towards the building and deepening of democratic societies, connecting professionals across boundaries of communities, countries, ethnicities and religions. It seeks to enhance the quality of history and citizenship education through capacity building for educators and producing and implementing innovative teaching tools.

OBJECTIVES

- Building professional capacity through developing and implementing innovative (on-line) teaching tools
- Fostering professional knowledge exchange, intercultural dialogue, cooperation and networking across borders and communities
- Supporting sustainable professional civil society stimulating, initiating and empowering independent history and citizenship educators' Associations across Europe and beyond

AREAS OF WORK

- Providing training on multi-perspective competence-based history education
- Developing innovative teaching tools ready for classroom practice
- Researching the needs of the target group
- Governing a democratic functioning of the organisation
- Disseminating information to keep a vibrant network alive
- Project Applications to ensure the sustainability of the Association
- Advocating to increase awareness on EUROCLIO's unique position and role

→ Sharing Professional Expertise on History, Heritage and Citizenship Education Development

TARGET GROUP

EUROCLIO engages History, heritage and citizenship education professionals, consisting of teachers in schools, curriculum developers, authors of teaching tools, teacher trainers, assessment experts, advisors and inspectors, educational staff in cultural institutions, Board members of member Associations and trainee teachers.

EUROCLIO Long Term Programmes

HISTORIANA - YOUR PORTAL TO THE PAST is an on-line educational multimedia tool that offers students multi-perspective, cross-border and comparative historical sources to supplement their national history textbooks. Historiana offers a framework for comparing and contrasting the impact on and responses by nations to a range of different events and developments which have shaped the world from the distant past to modern times.

HISTORY THAT CONNECTS IN THE WESTERN BALKANS restores the professional relations between history, heritage and citizenship educators and explores opportunities for a collaborative approach to teaching history in the region, including sensitive and controversial issues.

MEDITERRANEAN DIALOGUES enables educators across the Euro-Mediterranean region to open a common dialogue, to share experiences and to develop cross-community and cross-border cooperation and networks.

INNOVATING HISTORY EDUCATION IN THE BLACK SEA REGION raises awareness in this region for approaches in history, heritage and citizenship education, which enhance democracy and intercultural dialogue and is creating sustainable national and cross border networks.

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING is a EUROCLIO Programme as much as it is the initial work area of the Association since its inception. History, Citizenship and Heritage Educators are offered the possibility of cross-border professional development on a wide array of themes and issues. International Training courses are often 3 days at minimum and connect local themes to broad European and International Education agenda.

REFLECTING REMEMBRANCE is the way each generation (re)interprets key moments in its nation's or region's past, in accord with contemporary attitudes and perceptions of how that past fits into the subsequent narrative of the nation's (region's) history. As such, remembrance has been an area of attention and action for EUROCLIO since the Association started.

I. Providing training on multi-perspective and competence-based history education

OBJECTIVES

- Increased professional capacity for history, heritage and citizenship education professionals across Europe by:
