Aims of your Organisation	The American Historical Association (AHA) is a nonprofit membership organization founded in 1884 and incorporated by the United States Congress in 1889 for the promotion of historical studies. The association's principal functions fall within four realms: publication, teaching, advocacy, and networking. As the largest historical society in the United States, the AHA serves historians representing every historical period and geographical area.
Why are your motivated to become a EUROCLIO Member	We believe our mission and goals closely align with the efforts of the EUROCLIO. Our association with EUROCLIO will allow us to stay current on pedagogical developments in Europe, and allow us to work collaboratively on related projects on both continents.
