

I am willing to stand as a candidate for the Board of EUROCLIO:

My short CV:

Katerina Brentanou was born in Piraeus in 1962. She has been working in Greek Secondary Education for 25 years as teacher of Greek Literature, Language and History. She holds a PhD in History of Theatre and a Master of Arts in Theatrical Studies, University of Athens, Greece. She also has been trained on counseling and vocational guidance in University of Athens – Department of Pedagogical Studies and she has followed a 3-year-course on “Drama and acting” in drama school of Keratsini. She has been a teachers trainee for many years and nowadays she works as a school advisor. She is specialized in the use of drama techniques as a teaching method. Several books and articles of her have been published.

I would like to contribute to the work of EUROCLIO through:

I have participated in several Euroclio’s conferences, presenting workshops of History teaching through drama techniques. I believe that Euroclio is a very important association which helps, by supporting teachers all over Europe, in improving their teaching skills and increasing History knowledge. Therefore I would like to contribute to Euroclio’s work through a great range of activities which I have the intention to offer. It means that I will be present to meetings, discussions, conferences, seminars, projects and all other actions required in order to be an active and creative board member.

Thank you in advance for offering me the opportunity of this candidacy.
