

I am willing to stand as a candidate for the Board of EUROCLIO:

My short CV:

I am a historian from the Republic of Moldova, associate professor at „Ion Creanga” State Pedagogical University, founder and president of the National Association of Young Historians of Moldova. I am author of 5 monographs, more than 100 scientific publications, editor of 15 books, and editor of the young historian’s annual journal. My major academic interests are History of the South-Eastern Europe, Cultural Heritage Preservation and History Textbooks Analysis. Since 1997 I coordinated many projects on history teaching and education in the Republic of Moldova, including training courses, workshops, summer schools, debates, publication of the didactic guides for history teachers, etc.

I would like to contribute to the work of EUROCLIO through:

Firstly, it will be an honour to represent the country and the region in the EUROCLIO Board. I know very well the situation from the region and I consider that EUROCLIO should fortify its presents in Eastern European countries.

Secondly, I have experience in the field of History teaching which could be shared with other colleagues and do a real contribution for future EUROCLIO activities.

I am responsible, open mind person, democratic, tolerant, like team work etc. abilities which can help me in my future work as EUROCLIO Board member.