

My short CV:

Education

1996 Master of history and English language and culture

1996 – Teacher at Danish High school

2003-2009 board member, the Danish HTA

Career

Board member 2010-2013

Published two books on History Didactics on behalf of the Danish HTA (2005, 2009)

Published textbooks for history teaching

Teacher trainer since 2004

Editor of a web portal on history teaching on behalf of the Danish Ministry of Education – 30,000 visitors each month

Censor of high school history exam assignments on behalf of the Danish Ministry of Education

Editor of the quarterly history magazine on behalf of the Danish HTA

National School Coordinator of UNESCO's ASP since 2004 about the Transatlantic Slave Trade – finding and developing teaching materials

Member of the ASP steering Com. in the Danish UNESCO

Arranged study trips to Cuba, Ghana, Virgin Islands, Spain, Morocco, the UK, and Poland for Danish history teachers

Consultant for TV and other media and Danish publishing houses on history textbooks

Participated in the EUROCLIO project: "Ordinary People in Unordinary Country. Everyday life in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia and Serbia 1945-1990"

I would like to contribute to the work of EUROCLIO through:

I have worked in the EUROCLIO Board for the past 3 years and participated in a number of Annual Conferences and am willing to continue for another 3-year-period. I find the work here very important and interesting and want to contribute to the development of EUROCLIO in the future.