

EUROCLIO 5th
REGIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

Diversity and violence:
rethinking approaches in history education

Osijek, Croatia
22-24 August 2019

25 EUROCLIO

Preliminary Programme

Version 26 February 2019

In partnership with:

Wednesday 21 August

All day Arrival of participants

Possible group transport from airport to Osijek

Optional cultural programme

Guided tour around Osijek: minorities in peace, minorities under war

19:30 Welcome dinner

* Times will be set depending on arrival times flights

Thursday 22 August - Multiculturalism and threats of war (WW2)

Venue: National Museum of Slavonia

09:00 Welcome and opening

09:30 Opening Lecture

10:30 Coffee Break

11:00 Workshop round 1: minorities and local history

12:30 Lunch

14:00 On-site learning on local history: guided visit to the National Museum of Slavonia including presentation educational programme

The National Museum of Slavonia is one of the oldest museums in the Republic of Croatia. It is located in the old Baroque core of the City of Osijek - Tvrđa. Today the exhibition spaces are located in the two buildings on the Holy Trinity Square (Trg Svetog Trojstva), in the Main Guard building and the Magistrate building. Throughout time, it has hosted a variety of temporary exhibitions of historical, archaeological, ethnological, technical, scientific, and artistic significance.

16:00 Departure by bus to Batina Memorial

17:00 On-site learning on WW2: guided visit to Batina Memorial complex

The Batina Memorial complex was erected in 1946, by well-known Croatian sculptor Antun Augustinčić to commemorate the Battle of Batina during World War 2. It commemorates a key victory of the Red Army and partisans over the Nazi occupiers.

18:30 Departure by bus to vineyard

19:00 Dinner at vineyard

21:30 Return by bus to hotels

22:15 Arrival at hotels

Friday 23 August – Multiculturalism and threats of war (Homeland war)

08:30 Departure by bus to Vukovar

10:00 On-site learning programme / visiting Vukovar

Vukovar is a city in eastern Croatia, and hosts Croatia's largest river port, at the confluence of the Vuka and the Danube. During the 1990s wars, it was the setting of the Battle of Vukovar, a 87-day siege of the city by the Yugoslav People's Army, between August and November 1991. At the time, this was the fiercest and most protracted battle seen in Europe since 1945, and Vukovar was the first major European town to be entirely destroyed since the Second World War.

Packed Lunch

Workshop round 2: coexistence and diversity, how to teach about violent episodes

17:30 Return to Osijek by bus

19:00 Dinner

20:30 Pubquiz & Intercultural Night

Saturday 24 August – Coexistence and Remembrance

09:00 Reflections on day 1 and 2

- 09:30 Roundtable discussion: peaceful reintegration process – challenges and ways forward
- Questions & Answers
- 11:00 Coffee break
- 11:30 Workshop round 3: remembrance and coexistence
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:30 Discussion groups: rethinking approaches to diversity and violence in history education
- 16:00 Coffee break
- 16:30 Conclusions
- 19:00 Final dinner

Sunday 25 August

- All day Departures of participants