

Understanding a shared Past – Learning for the Future (2003) - Factsheet

General information
Name project	Understanding a shared Past – Learning for the Future. Changes and continuity in everyday life in Albania, Bulgaria and Macedonia.
Publish date	2003
Association	EUROCLIO
Representative	Mire Mladenovski
Project structure and roles	A group of history educators from Albania, Bulgaria and Macedonia, including representatives from minority groups was formed to work in a team for three years. The EUROCLIO network provided consultants from Denmark, Latvia, The Netherlands and Portugal.
Government's role (initiative/ endorsement/ no role)	Funded by the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Part of the Stability Pact South Eastern Europe.

Target area (countries/ language area)	Albania, Bulgaria, Macedonia
Content information
Type of education material	Teacher resource book
Target group	Teachers
Topic(s)	Political, economic, social and cultural life.
Theme(s)	Changes and continuity in everyday life in Albania, Bulgaria and Macedonia.
Geographical scope	Albania, Bulgaria, Macedonia
Period	1945-2000
Authors	Violeta Achkovska, Marie Brozi, Liljana Guga, Ljupka Hristova, Kenan Iseni, Bedri Kola, Mire Mladenovski, Nada Molerovich, Agron Nishku, Bistra Stoimenova, Violeta Stoycheva, Tatyana Tzvetkova.
Editor(s)	?
Academic advisor
Publisher	EUROCLIO
Output	Print: ? Language: Albanian, English, Macedonian
Website	https://www.euroclio.eu/resource/understanding-a-shared-past-learning-for-the-future-2/

Aim of the project: “This project had the overall objective to develop additional educational materials for Albania, Bulgaria and Macedonia with new content and innovative approaches and to implement these materials through a series of teacher in-service training seminars.

Albania, Macedonia and Bulgaria have a controversial and sensitive past. Academic historians will have to study this sensitive history and will come forward with new interpretations in their quest for the historical truth.”<sup>1</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup> “Understanding a shared Past – Learning for the Future,” EUROCLIO, accessed March 6, 2018, <https://euroclio.eu/publication/understanding-shared-past-learning-future/>