Please note that you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Supervisory Authority for Data Protection Rights. In the case of The Netherlands, this is the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens.

Addendum to GDPR and Privacy Policy for in person events and trainings

1. How do we use images (both photos and videos) taken during events and trainings organised by EuroClio

Photos and videos taken during events and trainings organised by us will be used by us for the following purposes:

- Reporting on the events to donors and partners;
- Reporting on the events to the general public (by means of a written report published on the EuroClio website);
- Visual support to news articles posted on the EuroClio website;
- Social Media posts, including (but not limited to) Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and YouTube

Photos and videos taken by us may be shared on the communication channels of the following groups when necessary:

- EuroClio employees;
- Project partners who are co-hosting the event or training;
- Project donors who are funding the event or training.

Also under strictly controlled conditions:

- Board Members of EuroClio;
- EuroClio Ambassadors.

In addition, selected photos taken at trainings and events will be shared with fellow participants, at the end of the event, by means of a Google Drive Folder. Should you not wish for your photos to be made available on the shared folder, you may at any time opt out or ask for photos to be removed by contacting us at secretariat@euroclio.eu.

2. How do we use quotes collected during events and trainings organised by EuroClio

The same rules as in the previous section apply.

3. The participants list

At the end of every event organised by us, we create a participants list. This list contains the name, institute, country of residence, and email address of all participants, and is shared with all participants as a password protected PDF file via email. Should you not wish for your details to be made available in the participants' list, you may at any time opt out by contacting us at secretariat@euroclio.eu or by letting us know in person at the event.
