

Submission Guidelines

History Education Dissertation Prize 2026

Required Documents

Upload all items via the online form. Incomplete applications cannot be considered.

1. Cover Letter (PDF, 500–750 words)

In this letter, please address the following:

- Motivation for application
 - Practical relevance of the research for history education and teaching
 - Potential reach and impact of the research for educational practice
-

2. English Abstract (PDF, 1,000–2,000 words)

Your abstract must include all of the following sections:

- Research problem and research question
 - Outline and justification of analytical approach, research methodology, and data collection
 - Summary of research outcomes
 - Argument for the key contribution(s) to existing scholarship and educational practice
-

3. Brief Curriculum Vitae

Include:

- Educational background
 - Relevant research experience
 - Key publications related to history education (if applicable)
 - Teaching experience (if applicable)
 - Other relevant professional experience
-

4. Complete Dissertation

Submit your full doctoral thesis:

- May be written in any language
 - Ensure all formatting, citations, and appendices are included
-

5. Degree Verification

- Copy of the PhD diploma